

Hugh Coltman Lyrics

« Salisbury Plain »

*Got a little time just to be myself, yeah
Seconds and the hours left on the shelf, yeah
Well the love that we made has been making waves
Sneaks out like a thief when you look away
Now I got a little time just to be myself, yeah*

*Golden light on my window pane
You know it takes me back again
To the wind on Salisbury plain
The warm summer rain is here again
I want to take a walk on Salisbury plain
Where the white horses reign*

*Jesse and me on a hillside running
The grass is wet and our hearts are drumming
These days that slipped and fell behind
Every single one's there in my mind
Jesse and me on the hillside, running*
