

Hugh Coltman Lyrics

« Maybe »

One at a time
I've been watching all these days just slipping behind
You're more than a friend
That is what I hear you saying time after time

Monday comes, monday goes
Tuesday wednesday heaven knows
Thursday through to saturday
It just don't pay

Maybe I been to shy to say
Just how much I love the way we play
Maybe, maybe, maybe I should turn and walk away
Cause maybe baby, maybe baby,
You're no good for me

I'm getting tired
Of hearing your excuses that are so uninspired
A bit of your time,
That is all I'm asking for but you don't supply.

Monday comes, monday goes
Tuesday wednesday heaven knows
Thursday through to saturday
It just don't pay

Maybe I been to shy to say
Just how much I love the way we play
Maybe, maybe, maybe I should turn and walk away
Cause maybe baby, maybe baby,
You're no good for me

Oh, oh, maybe

Maybe I been to shy to say
Just how much I love the way we play
Maybe, maybe, maybe I should turn and walk away
Cause maybe baby, maybe baby,
You're no good for me

Maybe I know what I'm worth
